

Changing the Narrative Monthly Events

Build Your Network. Grow Your Leadership. Learn how Books Change the Narrative.

Are you passionate about making a difference in Northeast Ohio?

The Cleveland Kids' Book Bank Associate Board is a community of emerging and established professionals who believe every child deserves the opportunity to own books and develop a lifelong love of reading.

Whether you're looking to expand your leadership skills, meet like-minded professionals, volunteer with purpose, or make a lasting impact on children's literacy, we'd love to introduce you to the Associate Board and the work of Cleveland Kids' Book Bank.

Learn More at One of Two Upcoming Events:

Changing the Narrative - Lunch & Learn

Thursday, August 13
11:45am - 12:30pm
via Zoom

Kids' Book Bank Executive Director Natalie Friedl hosts this online event open to the public.

This month, hear the story of Cleveland Kids' Book Bank, learn about our strategic vision, meet current Associate Board members, and discover how your talents can help create a culture of reading across Northeast Ohio!

Changing the Narrative - Books & Brunch

Thursday, July 30
11:45am - 12:30pm
Kids' Book Bank

Books & Brunch is an in-person event in the Mandel Literacy Hub at the Kids' Book Bank including a light lunch.

Tour our facility, experience the mission firsthand, meet board members, staff and volunteers, and explore how you or your company can become part of our growing literacy movement.

Whether you're interested in joining the Associate Board, volunteering, sponsoring events, hosting book drives, or simply learning more, we'd love to connect.
